Križnica is a protected natural scenery with a settlement carrying the same name, which is surrounded by backwaters of the river Drava on one side and the Hungarian state border on the other. You can get to Križnica by cable ferry across the river or via pedestrian suspension bridge, both of which lead to a popular local excursion site.

„Dravska iža“ is famous for its fresh fish specialties and local grown produce, all based on the principle – „from the fields to the table“. There are a lot of hobby and sport activities to choose from at Dravska iža, including hunting and fishing, boat rides, family rafting, „the Robinson route“, photo safary, trekking, nature walks, cycling, river camping and team building.

“Zlatni Klas Otrovanec” is a restaurant which specializes in offering local cuisine based on healthy homecooked meals and vegetarian diet. The estate owns 12 horses and offers a possibility of recreational horseback riding as well as horseback riding lessons, suitable for persons with special needs.

Family farm Patkoš owned by Vedrana Patkoš is engaged in wine production and sale. As part of a large agricultural estate, they have a wine cellar, indoor and outdoor space for wine tasting, as well as local specialties and products.

Company "Fructus" owned by Krešimir Kostelac produces fruit wines, brandies and liqueurs. Great attention is paid to the design, so each bottle is decorated with handmade terracotta medallion with the imprint of fruit. In addition to being a culinary product, they also have a souvenir value.

Nature Park Papuk is located in the mountain forest areas of Papuk, and the nature park itself was declared on the 23rd April 1999. In 2007 due to the geological heritage Papuk became the first Geopark in Croatia - Papuk Geopark.
